

- How to read the receiver lights

Upper left red light is function 1; controls water heater; when light is on, water heater is turned off

Upper middle yellow light is function 2; controls electric heat or a/c. When light is on, heat or a/c is turned off

Upper right red light is function 3; This controls additional electric heat or a/c; When light is on, heat or a/c is turned off

Lower left yellow light is function 4; generally not used.

Lower middle green light; test; Green light is only on briefly when receiver is first energized or when power is restored.

Future use